

SUMMARY OF NEW CONCLUSIONS OF THE DISSERTATION

Ph.D candidate: Nguyen Manh Cuong

Dissertation title: Management of special national relics of Huong Son area, Mỹ Đức district, Hanoi city.

Major: Cultural Management

Code: 9229042

Scientific advisor: Assoc. Prof. Dr. Trinh Minh Duc.

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Nguyen Thi Hue.

Institution: Vietnam National Institute of Culture and Arts Studies

New conclusions of the dissertation

1. Thesis system theory and related parties to operate, develop management content of the special national relic Huong Son population of indirect managers (6 contents) and management subjects directly (6 contents).

2. State the difference between the management of special national monuments and other hierarchical monuments in Vietnam. Analyze the role of state management for special national monuments, including the special national relic Huong Son population.

3. Survey and analysis of management activities of the National Monument, especially the Huong Son population, of the indirect and direct managers. Citing sources of documents, management documents and statistics to prove the results of management activities of the National Monument, especially the Huong Son population.

4. Point out the advantages and limitations of the management subjects of the National Monument, especially the Huong Son population, to propose solutions to improve the quality of state management.

5. The thesis proposes two groups of solutions for management subjects. Group 1 ceramic has 6 groups of solutions for indirect management subjects. Group 2 includes 6 groups of solutions for direct management subjects.

6. From the results of the study on the management of the national relic, especially the Huong Son population, the thesis draws 6 conclusions, including the new conclusions of the author of the thesis.

Scientific Supervisor 1:

Ph. D Candidate

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Trinh Minh Duc

Nguyen Manh Cuong

Scientific Supervisor 2:

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Nguyen Thi Hue

